

Please do not allow all television and radio stations to be owned by only a few companies. This will certainly restrict what news we hear.

Proof of this is already evident by the fact that very few TV or radio stations have reported on the changes you are considering even though it will have a profound affect on our freedom and our lives. More points of view are better for everyone.

Our freedom should be the #1 concern of the FCC.

Thank you, Marc Stein